The Youth Center is opened year-round for youth ages 9-12. The facility includes a game room, homework room, and spaces dedicated to arts & crafts, dance/music, and STEM. Youth programmers plan daily activities and lessons utilizing BGCA & 4-H principles that focus on developing youth physical, social, emotional, and cognitive abilities. We offer:

- Torch Club - a leadership committee that plans and implements their own activities and community service projects.
- Power Hour - homework help, tutoring, and high-yield group activities designed to promote academic success and retention.
- Arts/Music Clubs - enhance self-expression and creativity, develop multi-cultural appreciation, provide exposure to and develop skills in craft and visual, performing, and literary arts.
- Health, Fitness, and Life Skills Clubs - help youth achieve and maintain healthy, active lifestyles.
- Camps, field, trips, and special events.
- Partnered programs with Family Advocacy and Airman & Family Readiness.
